Dear Munnie,-

I went to Dr. Tate yesterday and he only looked to see if there were any bad places. He said there wasn't any, and that I did not have to come again until August or September. I slept with Daddie last night. Henrietta was over at Mrs. Gephart's for dinner yesterday and stayed all afternoon and brought home to Mary a little bear. She said she washed all the dishes. Are you having a nice time?

Dear Dad:-

We had a fine trip on the train, except the baggage was pretty heavy. We are going to check part of it coming home. Cousin Rufus met us with his Studabaker. It is a fine car and we made about 40 miles an hour all the way to Bradford. There was a fine state road most of the way.

We loafed all morning on Friday and in the afternoon at 4 o'clock Uncle Egbert & I went fishing. He rowed & braced his rod under the seat & I sat in the back and fished. When we got about 1 mile up stream, I caught a little one

It was about twelve or fourteen inches. Twelve<sup>(inches)</sup> is the limit. About a minute later Uncle Egbert caught one that he had to bring in hand over hand. It was about 2 lbs. 19 inches. Then I caught a fair sized one & then I caught a bigger one than his. We went up into the lake & he caught two there after I had caught a large one. I caught another & he caught one on the way home. Altogether we had 9. 5 big ones & 4 little. We threw back 5 and lost about 10, and had a lot of bites. He threw back & lost more than I did. I caught 5 & Uncle Egbert caught 4. Mine was the biggest. It was about 20 inches long. He lost a bigger one than that just as he was lifting it into the boat. It rained hard most of the time, but that did not hurt the fishing. There was the prettiest rain-bow I ever saw, while we were fishing. We have nice rooms in the hotel & we get fine meals.

~~Penn~~ Tell Penn to sell the two large squabs, <sup>(in the house)</sup> to Joe Hazel when he comes, & to sell the Bob Tail to Aunt Lucy when its squabs are old enough to eat, & eat them with white wing.

We are having a fine time. Give my love to Penn & Mary & the pigeons.

GIFTS FOR THE ZOO.

Dr. Hornaday Sees Paul Rainey About the Arctic Animals.

GLEN COVE, Sept. 7.—Dr. W. T. Hornaday of the Zoological Gardens in New York city came here to-day to visit Paul J. Rainey of New York, who with Harry Whitney of New Haven, Conn., has just returned from a hunting trip to the Arctic regions. The steamer Beothic, on which the trip was made, arrived here last night. She goes to-day to City Island, where her cargo, including a number of Arctic animals, will be unloaded.

A herd of six musk oxen is to go to the zoo, and Dr. Hornaday says it is the most valuable gift yet made to that institution. There is already one musk ox in the zoo and it is valued at $2,000. Two polar bears and two walruses captured by the hunters will also be presented to the zoo. One of the bears weighs 800 pounds and is said to be the largest in captivity.

Dr. Hornaday says that the walruses will have to have a steady diet of clams and fish before they can be got into good shape after their travels.

we went to the Hippodrome!
We had seats on the first floor. It was a fine place to see. The first act lasted two hours. It was called "The Yacht Race". The first scene was a village in France where

Dear Mother - We had a fine time on the way home. I took a picture of Cross Riff Lightship. a little while after we passed the " " we passed a big three masted schooner. I took a picture of it while it was passing a two masted schooner. At Oak Bluffs we saw the Seabergers. after we went out of Oak Bluffs we passed the same schooner. I took another picture of it. It was very close. Going through

Wood's Hole the current was so strong that it looked like a river. As soon as we got to New Bedford we got on the New Hampshire, and had a fine supper. We passed Gay Head Light.

They ~~passed~~ turned on the search light twice before we went to bed. When we woke up we were nearly in New York. We had our breakfast on the boat and then went to the Aquarium and saw all the fish. They had a lot of sharks like the ones we saw on the way to Great Point. They had a sea lion that never stopped swimming around his pool and every once in a while he would roar. There were turtles and seals and all kinds of fish. After that we went to Mr. White's offices to see Mr. Ordway but he was not there. Then we went to the Bronx Zoo and saw some of the animals. We did not have time to see them all. There was a big herd of Bison and lots of lions and tigers. But the best of them all was a performing chimpanzee. He performed at 4.15 so we did not see him perform. All the time we were there he was working with a piece of rope and some of his straw. He would tie the straw to a bar with his mouth and one hand. He held on with a hand and a foot and held the straw with the other foot.

Just as he got it tied and got down and hung by one foot to the straw and looked at the people as if he wanted some applause, the rope would break and he would fall to the floor of the cage. He did this three or four times then he hid under the straw and looked ashamed.

a regiment of soldiers were going to stay there. In a little while a circus parade came through and a little while later the circus began. It was one of the best circuses I ever saw. They had the best actors I ever saw They had three elephants, about a dozen bears and eight lions. The lion trainer made them do stunts, jumping over his head etc. after the circus had gone an aeroplane sailed across and every body cheered because he was the winner of the aeroplane race from New York to Paris. They had a sinking yacht and the life savers rowed out and saved her. The people

Then there was a yacht race
The whole thing was so wonderful that sometimes I would find myself with my mouth wide open just gazing at it. I can't tell you all about it now it's too late. The next act was about Indians
It was awfully pretty. The "Earthquake" came next. In the earthquake part, all the buildings fell into the water that covered the stage. In the finale
There was a beautiful palace, people were hanging in the air and people came out of a beautiful

Dear Dad:-

I can't express my thanks for the golf clubs and balls! They are the best I ever saw, and they just fit me perfectly. I don't see how you chose them because I just told you what kinds I wanted and when they came last night they were just perfect. I took them out after supper yesterday and played two holes with them. I am going to play all morning. I have played the nine holes three times with a mid iron of William's and did them in 74, 68, and 50. I was a little off the last time but I hope to do it in 65 today with the new clubs. Jim and I were out hunting crows yesterday afternoon but we couldn't get within a quarter of a mile of my, when we came home were late for supper and everybody had gone. When I went into mother's room to wash I saw this package from Rhalding's and when I got over to supper everybody was nearly through and the bag is a peach too. I never saw that kind of a putter before but I like it better than any I ~~ever~~ had in my hands. I like this place better every day. Tomorrow is Helen's birthday and she is going to have a big party. Thank you very, very much again for the golf clubs. Those balls are fine.

Well I must say good-bye. I am going right now to the links to play.

④ He poured out a glass for the trainor and himself and then drank it. Then he folded his napkin and they went to another room where the bicycle and the wine bottles were. The bottles were put around the room in a circle, there were about ten of them. He then mounted the bicycle and rode zig-zag around the room and weaving in and out <sup>about</sup> off the bottles. Once he tipped one over and then he rode into the middle, set his wheel down, and picked the bottle up. He mounted again and kept on riding. Then the man gave him a "glass of wine". He took it with one foot, still holding the handle bars with his hands and pedaling with the other foot. After that he went into the bedroom

Bellefonte, Penna.,
February 11, 1912.

Dearest Mother: ①

Mr. Ed Richard told me that he saw you and Daddie in Philadelphia Friday afternoon. I am glad that Daddie met you at Philadelphia instead of New York. We're having a fine time here at home. We miss you but don't come home until you get "good and ready". We have had a lot of good things to eat since you went. We had sausage for breakfast and are going to have chicken for dinner. Henrietta and I went to church but Mary had a "chilled foot" and didn't want to go (Time out for dinner) gee! but that was a good dinner! The stewed chicken was fine and so ~~was~~ <sup>were</sup> the potatoes and corn.

② We had chocolate blanc minge for desert. It was also good.

Hadley's Moving Pictures! They were the best I ever saw! They lasted from eight-thirty until eleven. They were certainly worth a quarter, if not more. There were ~~or~~ about twenty, and all but two were fine. Those two were the visit of the king and queen of England to the king and queen of Siam. Everything was so shaky and dayzleing. That was the only one that shook. The ~~one~~ other was some Egyptian or North African picture about temples and people on their faces praying. This was so faint that you could not see anything.

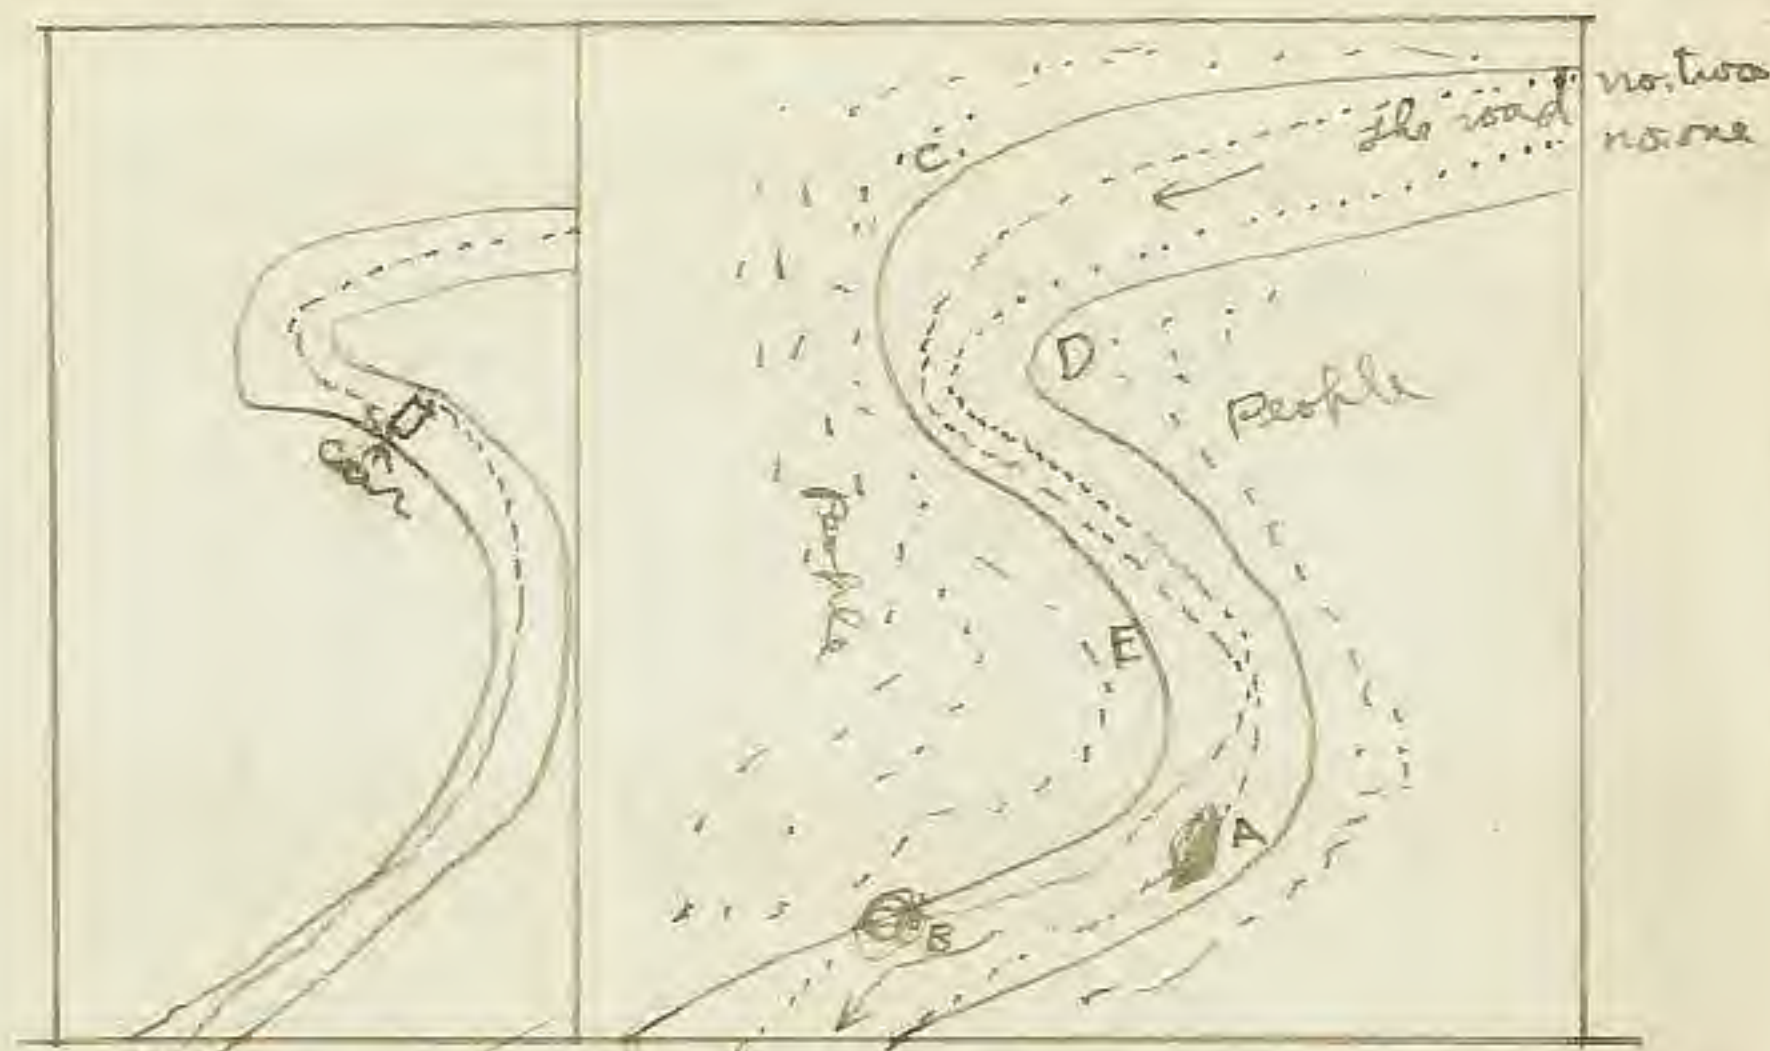

The best ones were: Major the Great, the Human Ape; The Automobile Race; Aeroplane Race at Rheims, France; Logging in Switzerland;

③ Niagara Falls from different places and on the deck of the "Maid of the Mist;" Coronation Procession of King George and Queen Mary and an English Fox Hunt. I will tell you about the ones that Henrietta did not:-

Major the Great was a little monkey about three feet tall and, at the beginning, dressed in a regular suit of clothes, at the dinner table with his trainer. He put his napkin down the back of his neck. He lighted the man's cigarette for him and then the candle, which he blew right out again. He rang the bell and a waiter came in with the salt and pepper, which he rolled around the table. Then he rang again and a bottle of wine was brought.

- ④ Then there was another turn, with more skidding. Then came a long stretch where the autos fairly flew along the ground. The autos came so close together and went so fast that my heart was in my throat most of the time and when they came to this double turn it went to my feet (or boots). Here is a picture of that turn.

(This is the canvass on which the pictures were shown)

- ⑤ and undressed. He took off his coat and vest, then his shoes and socks, wiping his face with these last. Then his trousers and undershirt and he was arrayed in a night-shirt! He ran over to his bed and turned a few flippers and then climbed around the head of the bed. Suddenly he jumped onto the bed and pulled the covers up around his neck. Good-night Major.

An English fox hunt. It showed how they all gathered together on horses, one carrying the fox in a box. Then came a man with the dogs and they started for the woods. (All these pictures were accompanied with the noises that the animals made). The dogs barked loudly.

⑥ The bark was behind the screen and made by some toy lion or bear or something like that. When they got to the woods, they let the poor fox out. He ran away into the woods and the dogs followed with one man, who had a horn, this noise was furnished by a little toy horn of three tones. When the dogs, after a lot of chasing, finally caught the fox, he blew loudly on the horn and the other "hunters" came up. They didn't even follow the dogs. Then they rode home and put the dogs in the kennel.

There was a picture of the Italian flag-ship that was in Tripoli and which had been in a whole lot of battles.

⑦ Ancient and Modern Egypt was not so good because they didn't say which was the ancient and which the modern. There were just a lot of pictures all along together.

The Runaway Automobile was a funny one, in which the automobile, driven by a woman, ran into people, a wagon, a scaffolding, a ladder onto a lamp post and other things, all of the people concerned running after the automobile.

But that Automobile Race, I don't care whether Henrietta did tell you about it, I am going to tell you again. The first was the start and a sharp curve near it where the autos slid like everything.

⑫ came up in clouds from the second house, I mean steam and smoke. I saw the first house's roof, and then front and back walls together, fall in. There was nothing but flame. after that, there is nothing left but a pile of ashes and part of the chimney.

We only have the first two periods of school tomorrow and then, for the rest of the morning, the Lincoln day exercises, of which, I am glad to say, I am only an auditor. No school in the afternoon! and no school on the afternoon of Washington's birthday!

We will get our reports tomorrow. Miss Bear (that's the way she said she shelt it) said I would get a high <sup>in</sup> ~~rating~~ <sup>rating</sup> almost an A. She said that she was sorry she couldn't make it A.

⑨ The autos slid around those turns at an awful rate of speed. One auto (no. one in picture) was going so fast that when they tried to turn it at the second turn it whirled around two times (A) and stood still. The men looked to see if all was right and then started on. Soon after that another car (no. two) turned the first turn so sharply that when they tried to turn the second turn the car ran up the bank and turned over (B) the men jumped out and in a little while turned the car over onto the road and resumed the race. A man with two flags (white and red) stood at the point C. on the first turn and used the flags as signals to the cars coming up the road. It looked funny to see the cars take those turns. A car would come ⑩ around the first turn so fast that <sup>with</sup> the rear of the car would swing up even ~~to~~ the front and they had to turn the front wheels to right angles to make the other turn. (~~see other pictures~~) (excuse my making this such a mess). Then they came down the narrow street of a town and back to the starting point. Ich war sehr böse, als ich nach Hause hatte zu gehen. They certainly were better than the scenic! Maggie went on Wednesday too because they had a festival on Thursday. Daddie couldn't go because he had to work in the office.

They put a funny picture in about every fourth one for variety and had the pictures well arranged.

⑪ There was an awful fire on Bishop Street on Friday about eight o'clock in the morning. It was Mart Dale's house (Jerome's father). The plugs were frozen and they could only get one stream on it from way down the street. This house was way out <sup>at</sup> the end and we saw it from the alley running along by Aunt Lucy's. It was so cold that you could not stay out long at a time. The house burned entirely to the ground but they saved most everything. The house next to it got started but they put it out before it got inside. The smoke

⑬ I got the highest grade for the month in the Latin Class.

It <sup>was</sup> ~~is~~ awfully cold this morning. They sang a good anthem in Church. It was lively and had a pretty tune. I am glad you looked for the tool kit and hope you find it. Don't forget the microscope.

Remember that even though we do want to see you again soon and miss you, even more do we want you to stay there and have a good time! Don't worry about the house or us. Everything is running smoothly. Give my love to everybody and tell them I ~~hope~~ <sup>want</sup> to see them soon. Keep about half of that love for yourself.

Dear Daddie:-

We are having a fine time. It is a rainy day. It started to rain hard about seven o'clock and it is still raining. I can swim over thirty feet and I am going to learn to dive ~~before~~ you come. The bay is so rough that for the last few days that we cannot swim unless we go through the waves which is a lot of fun. But the ocean is the most fun. It is much ~~easier~~ easier to swim in the ocean. It must be awfully hot in Bellefonte. It has not been hot here at all. I almost forgot how to write. I have not written for so long.

I received your letters and the pictures. They were fine.

Wauwinst is better than all the other places combined. Please come soon.
I know you will like it.

Your loving son,

Bugh M. Reigley

Dear Daddie,

We are having a fine time.

I wish you were here. The trip was fine all except missing the train. And I did not mind ~~it~~ that much. We spent a fine night in Williamsport and it was a lot of fun to go through the tube at Jersey City. It was so nice and cool. We had a fine time on the boat from New York to New Bedford. We got on the boat before the ~~Thornes~~ did. When we got to New Bedford we took the steamer "Gay Head" for Nantucket. I slept with William on the "Maine." I remembered most of the places we passed, especially Wood's Hole, Gay Head, Oak Bluffs and our cottage there. Sarah did not come down to the boat to see us! What do you ~~then~~ think of that. When we got to Nantucket we walked around the town for an hour and waited for the "Lilian" to sail. The "Lilian" is the boat that makes two trips between Nantucket and Wauwinet. We started at 2 o'clock and got here at 3 o'clock. Both the bathing and the meals here are fine. We bathe in the ocean and the bay. It is a lot of fun. I know nearly all the people here now. They are all nice. William found one of his classmates here. The ocean is not a bit rough.

We all will be very glad when you come. Please come as soon as you can. I hope the rabbits are all right. I sent a post-card to Phil and to some other fellows.

I miss you a lot.

Your loving son,

Hugh M. Quigley.

P.S. - We had a fine Fourth of July. We had no fire-crackers or fire-works but we watched other people who had them. What do you think of the Jeffries-Johnson fight?
